```sql
--1. stored procedures that can accept values and use them
--2. a parametrized stored procedure
--3. max quantity, min quantity, sum of the line total
--4. a parameter is a place holder through which a value
--5. can be passed into a stored procedure so that value
--6. can be used throughout the body of the stored procedure select * from Sales.SalesOrderDetail go drop procedure GetOrderSummary
go
create procedure GetOrderSummary @SalesOrderID int
as select SalesOrderID, Max(OrderQty) as Maximum, Min(OrderQty) as Minimum, Format(Sum(LineTotal),'C','en-us') as Total from Sales.SalesOrderDetail where SalesOrderID=@SalesOrderID group by SalesOrderID
go
GetOrderSummary @SalesOrderID=43659

select * from sales.SalesOrderDetail where salesorderid=43659
```